Sustaining Partners Program

The Sustaining Partners Program is for Jazz Supporters and JAM Supporters, the jazz magazine of the Kansas City Jazz Ambassadors. JAM is unique. Research indicates that JAM is the ONLY real glossy jazz magazine published by a non-profit jazz organization such as KCJA. Others have Newsletters, as does KCJA ("Wholenotes"), but none have a magazine comparable to JAM. Only the large commercial publications are equal to JAM. The Sustaining Partners Program was conceived to provide an opportunity for Jazz Enthusiasts to show their support of JAM, and the jazz community, by placing an Advertisement in JAM.

The ultimate objective is to ensure the viability, continuity, quality, and perpetuation of JAM and its representation of KCJA and Kansas City. On this page are a couple of examples of Sustaining Partners advertisements. YOU pick the colors. YOU provide the text and graphics. WE design your ad, or, YOU can provide camera ready artwork and we will just add the Header and Footer.

The program is predicated upon JAM's 6 issue discounted rate.
